

A Baptist church in Zanesville, Ohio, has expelled a deputy U. S. marshal from its communion, considering it prima facie evidence that a man, who consents to execute the fugitive slave law, cannot be a good Christian. Slave-catching certainly seems inconsistent with some of Christ's most direct teachings.